

Island Health Board of Directors Public Presentation Application

Thank you for your interest in presenting to the Island Health Board of Directors during the upcoming public forum. You are invited to apply to make a presentation regarding local health care issues or concerns. Due to time limitations, a limited number of presentations will be accepted.

In addition to formal presentations to the board, there is an opportunity for questions or comments from the floor, subject to time limitations. Please note this is a public event open to community and media.

Please submit the following information to Louise Carlow.
