Health Careers

Island Health strives to create a representative workforce and to be an Aboriginal 'employer of choice'.

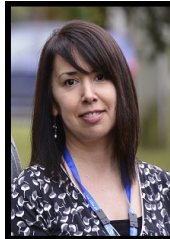

Our goal is to build collaborative relationships with Aboriginal communities and organizations, based on respect, understanding and recognition.

WORKSHOPS

Our interactive Health Career Workshop provides information regarding diverse health careers and related training.

Participants build skills relating to time management, grammar, public speaking, and self confidence while having fun!

Our Aboriginal Resume Writing and Interview Techniques Workshop explores how to:

- Write effective resumes and cover letters
- Apply to Island Health job postings through our online job application system (VI-Hire)
- Prepare for and perform in a job interview.

Our workshops are FREE to Aboriginal student groups and organizations within our region.

CAREER FAIRS

Our Aboriginal Employment Team attend numerous community events throughout the year to promote the spectrum of careers in health care to Aboriginal youth, First Nations communities and Aboriginal organizations.

To request a workshop or invite us to a career fair, please contact us at:
